Dear Author,

Thank you very much for your interest in our Journal and your manuscript. Thank you also for your patience while waiting for the answer from the Editorial desk review. Please note that, as we are receiving a large number of high quality submissions, we retain for the review process only papers that fit closely with the scope of our Journal, follow rigorously the author's guidelines and paper templates, have a broad international perspective on their field of research, employ a strong research methodology and challenge at a large extent the interest of our readers. Therefore, we encourage you to consider a more appropriate research outlet for your latest submission.

We wish you good luck with publication of your manuscript.

Kind regards,
